WASHINGTON VILLAGE

COOKBOOK
As one of the oldest public housing complexes in our nation, and the oldest in Connecticut, Washington Village has seen a great many residents since its cornerstone was laid in the year 1940. Families of adults and youth of all ages from countries across the world have made Washington Village their home, creating a community rich in cultural and ethnic diversity. This diversity also extends to the culinary arts.

In 2012, after the devastation created by Superstorm Sandy, a decision was made to replace and rebuild Washington Village. With the generous support of the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) through the Choice Neighborhood Initiative, a new, efficient, resilient Washington Village is being created. The goal is to protect and preserve the housing and personal enrichment opportunities provided to the residents of Washington Village and also to preserve the character and unique personality of this community. This collection of recipes is part of that effort as we create the new community: Soundview Landing.

One unifier over the years has been food.

Food represents comfort and coming together as a community. To celebrate Washington Village’s nearly eight decades, residents contributed recipes to the Washington Village Cookbook. Their recipes reflect their diverse heritage and the culinary traditions of families who have called Norwalk home.

Recipes have also been contributed by staff members of Housing Opportunities Unlimited and the Norwalk Housing Authority. Thank you to all who shared their favorite recipes.

Please enjoy making these dishes and keep this book as a lasting memory of your Washington Village family and community.

Belinda Barnes’ Corn Soup

In boiling water, add corn sliced off the cob, pumpkin chunks, carrot pieces, garlic, butter and salt and allow to boil until the soup gets thick. Add a bouillon cube for flavor, and potato cubes.
Select hard green mangoes and cut them in small pieces. Put in a pot of boiling water with pinch of salt. When the mangoes start to get tender strain them from the pot. In a separate pot heat a small amount of oil with garlic and 3 teaspoons curry until browned, stirring constantly. Add mangoes. Add water, butter and a little sugar and let it boil down until the sauce is thickened.
Gina Calzada’s Colombian Arepas

1. Masarepa is dehydrated cooked corn meal. It is available in the Latin section of most supermarkets in either white or yellow varieties. This recipe calls for white, but they can be freely substituted. Popular brands include Goya and P.A.N.
2. Crumbled cheese can be added if desired. Depending on the moisture level of the cheese, you may not need all the water. Colombian-style queso fresco is ideal. If you can’t find it, substitute cotija, ricotta salata, or feta.
3. Arepas can also be cooked on a greased panini press or a grill over low heat.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 1/2 cups masarepa (see note #1 above)
- 2 ounces (about 1/2 cup) finely crumbled queso fresco (optional, see note #2 above)
- 1 1/2 cups water, plus more as necessary
- 1 teaspoon vegetable oil
- Kosher salt
- 2 teaspoons butter

DIRECTIONS

Combine masarepa, cheese (if using), 1 cup water, and 1 teaspoon vegetable oil in a medium bowl and knead with hands until a dough is formed. Take a small amount and flatten it between your palms. If the edges crack, knead in more water a tablespoon at a time until dough is supple and smooth but not sticky. Season dough to taste with salt, then cover and set aside for five minutes. Divide dough into four even pieces and roll into balls. Working on a wooden cutting board or a regular cutting board with a sheet of plastic wrap or parchment paper on top of it, flatten each ball down to a disk about 5-inches in diameter and 1/4-inch thick.

Melt butter in a 12-inch cast iron or non-stick skillet over medium-low heat (see note #3 above). Add arepas and cook, moving them around the pan and rotating them occasionally, until first side is charred in spots and a dry crust has formed, about five minutes. Flip arepas and cook on second side until a dry crust has formed, about five minutes longer.

Continue cooking, flipping every minute or so, until arepas are mostly dry and relatively stiff, about five minutes longer. Serve hot with cheese, melted butter, or toppings of your choice.
Doraine Reyes’ Rice with Vienna Sausages/Arroz Con Salchichas Vienna

INGREDIENTS

3 cups rice
3 tbsp. sofrito
2 small packets sazón
2 5 oz. cans Vienna sausages (save the liquid for the rice)
2 8 oz. cans tomato sauce
1 envelope onion soup
2 tsp. salt (omit salt if onion soup is used)
1/4 cup canola oil
4 3/4 cups hot water
15 olives (pimiento stuffed)
2 tsp. alcaparras (capers)

DIRECTIONS

In a 5 qt. pot (or a pot big enough for the rice to expand) over medium heat, add the sofrito, sazón, Vienna sausages, tomato sauce, onion soup (or salt), canola oil, olives and alcaparras.

Rinse the rice well and add to the pot.

Add the hot water (liquid of the sausages and water to equal the amount of water specified). Increase heat to medium high and stir well.

When it starts boiling, reduce to medium heat and let the rice completely dry out. By now, most of the liquid will be absorbed and you will not see the edges around the rice bubbling with the yummy liquid.

Stir the rice with a large spoon, bringing the rice at the bottom to the top.

Cover the pot to a tight fit with aluminum foil, cover with lid and reduce the heat to low.

After about 20 minutes, uncover carefully (watch out for the steam) and stir the rice again using the large spoon.

Cover the pot again with the aluminum foil and lid. Cook for another 10 minutes.

Remove the pot and set it on a cool burner. DO NOT leave it on a hot burner.

Lisa Roger’s Guacamole

Dave & Lisa Roger's Chili

This recipe can be vegetarian or with meat. Freezes nicely! Recipe can be easily doubled or tripled! Top with shredded cheese of your choice if desired (jack cheese works nicely).

1- 29 to 32 ounce can tomato sauce
2- 16 ounce cans of DARK RED kidney beans
Approximately 1 cup of water
1 large or 2 medium onions, chopped · Or 2 sweet peppers (one green and/or one red) chopped parsley, either 1/4 cup fresh or 2 tablespoons dried
Approximately 2 tablespoons garlic, chopped (we use pre-chopped garlic in a jar)
1 to 2 teaspoons crushed red pepper, or to taste
2 to 4 teaspoons chili powder, or to taste
olive oil for browning onions/peppers

AND EITHER:
• 1 pound ground meat (chicken, turkey, or beef)
OR (for vegan)
• (2) Additional cans of beans (garbanzo, pinto, white kidney beans... your choice)

Directions:
1. Brown onions, pepper and garlic in small amount of olive oil.
2. (for meat) Brown meat.
3. Mix ALL remaining ingredients in a large non-stick pot.
4. Add browned vegetables and/or meat.
5. Bring to boil, cover, then reduce heat to low.
6. Simmer approximately 2 hours.
7. If needed, add salt and pepper to taste.

Notes:
• Other than tomato sauce and dark red kidney beans, all other ingredients are optional or to taste. Don’t like onions or peppers? Leave them out, or leave one out and add more of the other. Want it spicier or milder? Add more/less crushed red pepper and chili powder.
• The dark red kidney beans are softer and absorb the spices and flavors more than the light red kidney beans.
• Add/reduce the quantity of water to get the desired consistency.

Variations
• Add chopped carrots to vegan chili.

Use fresh hot peppers (minced) instead of crushed red pepper AND chili powder. Remove seeds before mincing. You’ll need to experiment with the quantity, based upon heat level of the hot peppers. If you use hot peppers, generally you won’t need the chili powder at all. You can supplement with crushed red pepper if needed.
Debra Hairston's Sausage Bread

2 sausage (I use one hot and one sage)
5 tbs parmesan cheese
3 cups mozzarella cheese (shredded - 1 1/2 bags)
1 tsp garlic powder
1 tsp Accent
2 tsp onion powder
1 tsp parsley flakes
1 tsp oregano

Brown sausage and drain well. Cool the sausage about an hour in the refrigerator or freezer. After cooled, mix in other ingredients.

There are three options for making the bread dough depending on your time, talent, and preference.

Option 1 - (fastest and cleanest) Buy frozen bread dough, thaw and follow the directions below.

Option 2 - 1 Pillsbury Hot Roll Mix (box in cake section) Follow the directions on the box but let rise for 15 minutes.

Option 3 - Make the bread dough yourself from scratch. Let rise according to the recipe you use. Whichever option you choose, separate the dough in half and roll out oblong. Put half of the sausage mixture on each piece and roll into log shape. Put seam side down on a cookie sheet and brush top with beaten egg. Bake 30 minutes at 350.

Variations:
- You can make two big loaves or several small loaves. Be sure to spread the sausage mixture to both ends of the bread or you waste a lot of dough.
- Can be served hot or cold.
- Can be served with a “Quick Pizza Sauce” for dipping.
Zoraida Vazquez’s Guineos en Escabeche (Green Banana Salad)

- 2 lbs bananas, bright green unripe -about 10 green bananas (the greener the better)
- 2 large onions, sliced into thin rings
- 1/2 cup white vinegar
- 3 - 4 garlic cloves, crushed
- 10 -12 olives, green (stuffed with pimiento if desired)
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 10 - 12 whole black peppercorns
- 3 -4 bay leaves
- 1 cup olive oil or 1 cup light olive oil
- salt and pepper

1. Cut the banana with a knife by cutting off the ends of the bananas and making a cut along the outside curves of the banana skins, but DO NOT remove the skins.
2. Place the bananas in boiling water and add 1 to 2 tablespoons of salt and 2 teaspoons of oil to make them peel easier. Boil the bananas for approximately 20 minutes on medium-low heat. If you boil them too long they will come apart.
3. While the bananas cook, make the Escabeche sauce by placing all the rest of the ingredients into a pot. Stir them well and place on medium heat until the mixture gets hot. Then reduce the heat to low and cook for approximately 1 hour. Remove from heat and set aside to cool to room temperature.
4. The banana is done when you lightly stab it with a toothpick and it is tender but firm. Peel off the skins and cut the bananas in 1 inch size rounds and put them in a glass or “Tupperware” bowl. Add the sauce to the bananas. Stir and mix well. Cover them and let them cool off. After they cool off place them in the refrigerator for 2 hrs or longer -- the longer the better. Serve and eat.

Habichuelas con Dulce Recipe (Sweet Cream of Beans):
It is a delicious Lent tradition in the Dominican Republic.

- 4 cups soft-boiled red kidney beans (or cranberry or pinto beans)
- 6 cups water from boiling the beans
- 2 cups coconut milk
- 3 cups evaporated milk
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 2 cinnamon sticks
- 10 cloves
- 1/2 lb sweet potatoes (batata), cut into small cubes
- 1/2 cup raisins

To garnish
- 8 pieces cassava bread (casabe), may be omitted
- 1 cup milk cookies
- 2 tsp butter

1. Put the beans (and the water in which they boiled) in a blender and puree. Strain the beans to get rid of the skins and undissolved solids. Pour the beans, coconut milk, evaporated milk, salt, sugar, vanilla, cinnamon, cloves and sweet potatoes and simmer over low heat until the sweet potatoes are cooked through. Stir regularly to avoid sticking.
2. Add the raisins and simmer for another 10 minutes (don’t worry that it may look too thin, the cream of beans will get much thicker when chilled). Remove the cinnamon sticks (and cloves, if you like). Remove from the heat and cool to room temperature. Chill before serving.
3. Spread butter on the cassava bread and toast in the oven until it turns golden brown.
4. Serve the beans with the cassava on the side. Put cookies in the beans when you serve.

Lucy and Kerbert Vallere’s Chicken and Sausage Gumbo

In a frying pan take 2 tablespoons of flour and 6 tablespoons of oil and stir continuously over medium heat until it turns a reddish brown color. Do not leave it unattended as it will burn quickly if not watched carefully. Once the color is achieved, set aside.

Fill a large soup pot with water half way. Let the water come to a boil on medium heat. In a frying pan put 6 tablespoons of oil on medium heat until the oil is hot enough to fry. Season about 8 chicken wings cut in half with Tony Chachere’s Creole Seasoning. Add half a tablespoon of garlic powder. Brown chicken in the hot oil in the frying pan. When chicken is brown add a large chopped onion and stir until the onion starts to cook down and brown. Slowly add a little water so it does not stick and burn. When onion is cooked down add the brown chicken and onion mixture to the boiling water.

Now add the browned flour (called rue) to the pot of boiling water. Then add about 1 pound of smoked sausage cut into small pieces to the pot. Add about ¼ tablespoon of the creole seasoning to the pot of chicken and sausage. Cook on a medium to low heat for about 1 hour. Serve over white rice.

Michael Crafter’s Classic Meat Lasagna

INGREDIENTS

12 whole wheat lasagna noodles
1-pound lean ground beef
2 cloves garlic - chopped
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1 teaspoon dried oregano, or to taste
Salt and ground black pepper to taste
1 (16 ounce) package cottage cheese
2 eggs
1 1/2 (25 ounce) jars tomato-basil pasta sauce
2 cups shredded mozzarella cheese

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C).
2. Fill a large pot with lightly salted water and bring to a rolling boil over high heat. Once the water is boiling, add the lasagna noodles a few at a time, and return to a boil. Cook the pasta uncovered, stirring occasionally, until the pasta has cooked through, but is still firm to the bite, about 10 minutes. Remove the noodles to a plate.
3. Place the ground beef into a skillet over medium heat, add the garlic, garlic powder, oregano, salt, and black pepper to the skillet. Cook the meat, chopping it into small chunks as it cooks, until no longer pink, about 10 minutes. Drain excess grease.
4. In a bowl, mix the cottage cheese, eggs, and Parmesan cheese until thoroughly combined.
5. Place 4 noodles side by side into the bottom of a 9x13-inch baking pan; top with a layer of the tomato-basil sauce, a layer of ground beef mixture, and a layer of the cottage cheese mixture. Repeat layers twice more, ending with a layer of sauce; sprinkle top with the mozzarella cheese. Cover the dish with aluminum foil.

Cindy Jimenez's Low Carb Zucchini with Spicy Turkey Meat Sauce

INGREDIENTS:
- Nonstick cooking spray
- 4 large zucchini, sliced about 1/4 inch thick
- 1 teaspoon olive oil
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 small yellow onion, diced
- 1 green pepper, diced
- 1 pound lean ground turkey
- 1 - 14 oz. can tomato sauce
- 1 - 14 oz. can crushed tomatoes
- 2 tablespoons tomato paste
- 2 teaspoon dried oregano
- handful of basil, finely chopped (about 1/4 cup)
- handful of parsley, finely chopped (about 1/4 cup)
- 1/2 teaspoon red cayenne pepper, if desired
- red pepper flakes, if desired
- salt and pepper, to taste

For the ricotta cheese mixture:
- 15 oz. part skim ricotta
- 1 egg white
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 12 ounces reduced fat or part skim shredded mozzarella cheese

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F.
2. Place sliced zucchini on large baking sheet coated with nonstick cooking spray. Sprinkle with salt and roast in the oven for 15-20 minutes to help dry out the zucchini a bit. This is a critical step.
3. While the zucchini noodles are roasting, you can make the turkey meat sauce. Heat olive oil in a large pot over medium high heat. Add garlic, onions, and peppers and cook a few minutes until onions become translucent and garlic is fragrant; stir occasionally so that you don’t burn it. Add in ground turkey and cook until no longer pink. Add in tomato sauce, crushed tomatoes, tomato paste, oregano, basil, parsley, and a few dashes of red pepper flakes. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to low and simmer UNCOVERED 25 to 30 minutes or until sauce REALLY thickens up! (If it needs to be thicker, I suggest adding in another tablespoon or two of tomato paste.) Season with salt and pepper to taste. Remove from heat to cool.
4. In a medium bowl, combine egg white, ricotta, and Parmesan. Season with a bit of salt and pepper. Add in 1/2 cup of the slightly cooled meat sauce and stir to combine.
5. To assemble lasagna, spread 1/2 of the turkey meat sauce into the bottom of a 9x13 inch baking pan coated with nonstick cooking spray. Place zucchini slices evenly over meat sauce, spread on 1/2 of the ricotta mixture, then sprinkle 1/2 of the mozzarella on. Repeat layers again starting with the meat sauce, zucchini slices and ricotta mixture and finishing with mozzarella. Cover with foil and bake for 30 min. Remove foil and bake for 15 minute longer uncovered. Makes 8 very generous servings.

Maria Guzman’s Pastelón de Plátano Maduro (Ripe Plantain Casserole)

The delicate sweetness of ripe plantains, flavorful beef filling, and melting cheese. Pure bliss.

For the filling

• 2 tbsp olive oil
• 1 red onion minced
• 3 cloves of garlic, crushed or minced
• 1 lb minced beef
• 1 cup tomato sauce
• 1 seeded and minced bell pepper
• 1 1/2 tsp salt (or more, to taste)
• 1/2 tsp pepper (or more, to taste)
• 1 tsp chopped cilantro (or parsley)

1. Heat oil over medium-low heat. Stir in onion and cook and stir until it turns translucent. Add garlic and cook, stirring for a minute. Add minced meat and cook and stir, breaking into small clumps until it browns.
2. Pour in tomato sauce, add bell pepper, salt, and pepper. Stir and cover. Simmer for 3 minutes.
3. Uncover and mix in the optional ingredient of your choice, or none at all if you so prefer. Taste and season with salt and pepper to taste if needed. Remove from the heat.

To assemble –

• 6 plantains (very ripe)
• 1 tsp salt
• 1/4 cup butter
• 2 tbsp vegetable oil (soy, peanut or corn)
• 1 cup grated cheddar cheese

Instructions

1. Butter a 1-inch tall baking pan.
2. Pre-heat the oven to 350 °F.
3. Peel the plantains and boil adding 1 teaspoon of salt to the water. Once the plantains are very tender remove from the heat.
4. Take the plantains out of the water and mash them with a fork. Add the butter and keep mashing until it is very smooth. Put half of the plantains mixture in the baking pan. Cover with half of the cheese. Cover the cheese with the meat. Cover with the remaining plantain mixture. Cover with the rest of the cheese.
5. Bake until the top is golden brown.
6. It will be easier to serve if you wait five minutes after removing from the oven.
7. Your choice of cheese and the order in which the layers are distributed is a matter of taste. Basically, any cheese that melts works, I like mixing cheddar and mozzarella, for example, while some people like placing the cheese right after the meat layer.

The “Nuegados” is a very delicious typical sweet dish from El Salvador, usually served with the company of the popular chilate (a typical drink of white corn) but can also be a delicious snack or dessert on its own.

The nuegados recipe represents a fusion of culinary cultures, the Spanish and the indigenous cuisine pipil. Both cultures contributed an important part in the development of this rich dessert. In other neighbouring countries to El Salvador, the nuegados is known as fritters.

NUEGADOS MIXTURE

- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 2 ounces of margarine or butter
- Salt to taste

Preparation: Mix all the ingredients to form a soft dough. Then, take cylindrical and short pieces of dough, (shaped like a small sausage) and fry them in enough oil to brown them slightly (25 to 30 nuegados). Add some honey.

Arroz con Leche Recipe (Spiced Rice Pudding): There are many versions, but the Dominican one, with its heavenly mix of spices, stands out above the crowd.

- 1 cup of long-grain rice
- 6 cloves
- 4 cinnamon sticks
- 6 cups of water, divided
- 1 teaspoon of salt
- 3 cups of evaporated milk
- 1 cup of sugar
- 1/4 cup of raisins
- 2 tablespoons of butter
- 1/8 teaspoon of ground nutmeg
- Cherries for decoration (optional)

1. Soak the rice, cloves and cinnamon sticks in 2 cups of water and let sit for a couple of hours. This step is optional, and it’s my own method for cooking the rice.

2. When the 2 hours have passed, pour the remaining 4 cups of water into a medium pot. Add in the rice (including the water in which it was soaking, cinnamon and cloves). Add the salt.

3. Cook over medium temperature and stir regularly to avoid sticking. When the rice is tender (about 20 mins) add milk and sugar. When it breaks a boil again add the raisins. Cook over low heat until the mixture reaches a pudding-like consistency.

4. Remove from the heat. Remove the cloves and cinnamon sticks. Add the butter and mix well. Cover and let it cool down to room temperature.

5. Stir to incorporate the crust that forms during cooling.

6. Serve in small bowls and sprinkle with the nutmeg. Decorate with the cherries.

Traditionally served as a coffee cake in El Salvador, “quesadilla” cake isn’t made with tortillas; it is more like pound cake than bread. Made primarily with freshly grated Queso Fresco cheese, rice flour, sugar and cream, this special treat is commonly found in Salvadorian panaderias or bakeries. It is best baked as a shallow loaf but can also be baked in 8-inch or 9-inch round cake pans and cut into wedges.

2 (8-inch) loaves

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 2 cups granulated sugar
- 4 large eggs, beaten
- 3/4 cup whole milk
- 1/4 cup Mexican Crema
- 8 ounces Queso Fresco, finely grated
- 1 cup (2 sticks) butter, melted
- 2 tablespoons sesame seeds (optional)

Preheat oven to 325°F. Grease loaf pans well and set aside. Sift flour and baking powder together and set aside.

In a medium bowl, on medium speed, beat sugar together with eggs for 1 minute. Add milk, Mexican Crema and Queso Fresco and beat 1 minute. Beat in melted butter until blended. Stir in flour mixture until completely blended.

Fill prepared loaf pans 3/4 of the way to allow for some rise. Sprinkle sesame seeds over the top of the batter, if desired.

Bake 40 minutes, depending on size of loaf pans, or until toothpick just comes out clean. Serve warm. Refrigerate remaining portions after serving.
